Who We Are

Labacorp Industries is a leading diversified mining and energy company committed to discovering, developing, and producing energy assets and critical resources essential for a low-carbon future.

We specialise in sourcing and securing funding for the exploration and development of mineral and energy resources. With a portfolio of assets, we provide exposure to oil, gas, copper, zinc, nickel, palladium, platinum, rhodium, and other green metals that support global sustainability transitions.

Energy Limited

Under the leadership of Mr. Bako AMBIANDA, executives across Labacorp Industries and its associated companies have raised more than US$10 million through diverse financing vehicles on global capital markets since 2019. This capital has been deployed across five African countries, primarily focused on mineral and energy resource development.

We are at the forefront of identifying and developing low-risk, high-potential mineral and energy assets through strategic joint-venture partnerships with global leaders in the energy and mining sectors.

At Labacorp Industries, we believe that mining and drilling—when guided by vision, purpose, and responsibility—play a vital role in advancing the world's transition to clean energy.

Our Purpose

To discover, develop, and produce the energy assets and critical resources needed for a resilient and sustainable future on planet Earth.

Our Vision

To become an African leader in the supply of energy and essential metals for the world's growing population and its transition to clean energy.
